Dear Parents,

I am writing to inform you that your son/daughter has put his/her name forward to join the Gold Duke of Edinburgh Canoeing group. This does carry a cost both for the termly fee of £50 plus the cost of the training, practice and qualifying expeditions.

As you may remember the letter sent over the summer holiday asked for a £150 deposit and the remaining costs would be confirmed. I am now in a position to confirm that we will be employing Drummonds of Shrewsbury to facilitate the three sections of the expedition side which will have an overall cost of £550. This covers camping fees, transport and training, including the canoes. However, your son/daughter may wish to purchase extra waterproof clothing and bags which will be at their own expense.

The cost will be taken in instalments:
£150 as the deposit
£250 on the Michaelmas 2011 bill
£150 on the Lent term bill.

If you would still like to proceed can you return the attached tear off slip or email me at debbie.joynson-brooke@ellesmere.com

The College will facilitate the other sections of the award and track their progress

Yours sincerely,
