Year 11 Prom

Friday, 13th May

7.00pm

Friday 13th May is the date set for the annual Year 11 Spring Prom. The Prom is organised by the pupils themselves, supported by the Year 11 tutor group team. This year the pupils have decided on a formal event.

A night of food and dancing will follow. The event is organised to celebrate the end of the teaching and preparation phase before examinations begin in the Summer Term. Past events have been superb. This year promises to be one of the best yet!

Edexcel AS Drama and Theatre Studies Examination Performances

Wednesday, 18th May

7.00pm

Arts Centre

Admission Free - Tickets required

Public Performance

Lower Sixth Drama presents:

Scenes from 'My Mother Said I Never Should' by Charlotte Keatley

Monologues from:

'Lady Windermere's Fan' by Oscar Wilde, 'Widows' by Ariel Dorfman, 'September in the Rain' by John Godber and 'Shakers' by John Godber.

Sixth Form students will be performing their examination pieces in front of a visiting examiner. A warm and supportive audience would be most welcome.

Please note that there will be short intervals between each performance during which refreshments will be served.

GCSE Devised Performances

Thursday, 19th May

Middle School Play
Noughts and Crosses by Malorie Blackman adapted by Dominic Cooke

Wednesday, 15th & Thursday, 16th June

7.00pm

Arts Centre

Free Admission

In a story inspired by Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet, Noughts & Crosses challenges our perceptions of race, power and truth as it dramatises the thrilling love story of Sephy and Callum, two young people kept apart by bigotry, terrorism and injustice. Sephy, a Prime Minister's daughter from the powerful Crosses, falls for rebel Callum, son of a dangerous Nought agitator. Their desire to be together threatens family loyalties and sparks a growing political crisis.

Middle School wish to bring this new adaptation of Malorie Blackman's bestselling book which promises to be full of intrigue and a world of those who 'have' and 'have not' and how if you strive to dream you may be lucky enough to overcome anything!
