Dear Parent,

Sixth Form Leavers' Drinks Reception – Friday 28th May: 5.00pm

I wanted to write to invite you to come along to the event at the end of half-term which is an opportunity to say an informal goodbye – at the end of the teaching phase of your son or daughter's education – to the teachers who have been involved with him/her in his/her time at Ellesmere.

I know that the time will not be convenient for many parents and more particularly those based overseas, and that is unfortunate. However, this is an informal and often relatively brief occasion.

The main event for saying goodbye to the school is, of course, the Sixth Form Ball at the end of term and I hope that I will see most, if not all, parents of leavers at that event.

With all good wishes,

Yours sincerely,
