Academic Success 2021

Leo Sun

A*A*A*A*A*

Imperial College London - Chemistry

Leo's academic ability and love of learning were just extraordinary and he was a truly exceptional student of Chemistry. He achieved Gold medals in both the Royal Society of Chemistry Olympiad and the Chemical Institute of Canada's Chemistry Contest with Special Merit, coming in the top ten per cent of contestants and he was always kind, considerate and smiling. In the Upper Sixth his excellent qualities were recognised in his appointment as a prefect, an important role which he carried out with distinction.

Jojo Kang

A*A*A*A*

Durham University - General Engineering

Jojo was a surprisingly modest and accomplished Mathematician having achieved a Gold certificate in the Senior Maths Challenge and a Distinction in the Mathematics Olympiad for girls. Fluent and confident in both English and Chinese, she also sang in the choir, played in the hockey and netball teams and was Captain of St Oswald's House where she demonstrated her happy and kind nature and was unfailingly helpful and supportive to her peers.

Alannah O'Brien

A*A*A*A*

Durham University - Theoretical Physics

Alannah was a profound thinker with an insatiable appetite for knowledge and growth. She competed as goal-keeper at international level for Hockey Wales and her naturally inquisitive nature gives her the potential to be a great scholar, with a great sense of humour too. She demonstrated her leadership skills as Vice-Captain for the First Hockey Team, regularly traveling to Cardiff for national training whilst still maintaining her academic profile which speaks volumes about her determination, focus and talent.

Dorian Puzovic

A*A*A*A*

Imperial College London - Medicine

Dorian's infectious enthusiasm, methodical and disciplined approach, and genuine desire to help others will make him an excellent student of medicine. As a co-founder of Medsoc, Dorian was also appointed Prefect in Year 13 having previously been Captain of St Patrick's House during his time in Middle School. He made a valuable contribution to the wider aspects of school life especially with tennis where he demonstrated great skill on the court and was Captain of the Tennis team.

Carol Shi

A*A*A*A*

UCL (University College London) - Economics

In the two years that Carol was with us she quickly established herself as a model pupil. Not only was she an outstanding economist and mathematician, winning a Gold award in the UKMT Senior Maths Challenge, but she also enjoyed sport and taking part in the Duke of Edinburgh's Award Scheme and was an accomplished pianist having played from the age of 4. Carol set herself goals not only in the classroom, but on the sports field too - playing hockey, tennis, squash and badminton as well as singing with the Chapel Choir.

Kezia Hutchings

A*A*A*

Cardiff University - Medicine

Kezia was meticulous, self-motivated, confident and strong in her approach to learning. These attributes no doubt helped when she represented England and Great Britain (GB) in the .22 rifle shooting team. As an NCO in the CCF and College Prefect, her leadership skills were developed and all will support her future career choice. Kezia has worked hard in all aspects of College life - being called upon to fulfil leadership roles, and distinguished herself as a superb role model for younger students.

Juhyeong Park

A*A*A*

King's College London, University of London - Computer Science

After joining us for the Sixth Form, Juhyeong's ambition to succeed at the highest level soon became clear. He achieved top grades in Maths, Further Maths and Computer Science. He set a fine example to younger pupils in College and was a hugely popular member of the boarding house. This was also evident on the football pitch where his sense of humour, communication and team spirit were appreciated. He quickly understood the Ellesmere spirit and gave much back to the College in his short time with us.

Joe Patmore

A*A*A*

University of Sheffield - Medicine

Joe was a dedicated student who possessed all the attributes to be a great success. He was heavily involved in our co-curricular activities, co-founding Medsoc and he made a significant contribution to sport as vice-captain of the 1st XV rugby team and also as Captain of Wakeman-Lambart House. Joe achieved his Gold DofE and has represented the school in a variety of sports and clubs throughout his time. As a Prefect he was responsible for organising key events throughout his time at the College - exuding calm under pressure.

Rory Smith

A*A*A*

University of Warwick - Philosophy, Politics and Economics

Rory joined us in Year 7 and he has contributed much since then. Combining his academic ability with a determined and inquisitive mind, Rory contributed to the debating society and also set up an Economics forum in the Sixth Form. He was also a valuable member of the CCF and achieved the rank of Corporal. He has also been part of the DofE Gold award as well as the winner of the House Debating competition, showing his academic flair and skills with argument and debating.

Mariella Steele

A*A*A*

Durham University - History

Bright and inquisitive, Mariella was a soloist in two college choirs, played in the orchestra, enjoyed netball and rowing and became a company member of the National Youth Theatre. She competed in Oswestry in a number of solo and choir events winning 2nd in musical theatre and within College she organised the Cre8 production for Arts Award Gold raising funds for Hope House Charity. Alongside her academic accomplishments, Mariella has been very involved in all areas of College life - whether entertaining on stage as Audrey in Little Shop of Horrors or helping the 2nd Team Netball maintain an unbeaten season.

International Baccalaureate (IB)

Maciej Kowalski

43 Points

UCL (University College London) - Engineering (Electronic and Electrical)

Maciej was a most gifted academic, with a seemingly insatiable thirst for knowledge. He revelled in the challenges that complex problems pose and was extremely quick to grasp new concepts. He achieving Gold Awards in the UK Olympiads for Mathematics, Chemistry as well as other awards for Physics. His dry wit and observations were also much appreciated.

Leo Buckle

42 Points

The University of Edinburgh - Business with Enterprise and Innovation

Leo set his personal and academic standards extremely high when joining us in the Lower Sixth and he became a prefect in the Upper Sixth. In the National Youth Flash Fiction competition he was placed as 'Highly Commended'. He was also part of the College's prestigious Football Academy and twice achieved Player of the Month and was the Interim Captain of the 1st XI as well as supporting the 'Green Team' environmental charity work.

Julia Ostaszyk

42 Points

University of Hong Kong - Global/ International Business

Bilingual, ambitious and academically driven, Julia was an impressive student who fully embraced academic life at Ellesmere College. Julia was Vice Captain for St Oswald's House, played badminton, tried her hand at fencing, was a member of Green Team, ran charity events, and participated in House competitions. Demonstrating leadership in a broad range of areas she was mature, caring and always sensitive to the needs of others.

BTEC

(D - Distinction; M - Merit)

Jac Jones

D*DD* / A*

University of Leeds - Business Management

Jac was highly regarded within the College community, excelling in Business and BTEC Sport. He was active in all aspects of school life, representing the school in rugby and assisting the College as both as Captain of St Luke's House, Captain of Talbot and as a Prefect. In rugby he also represented Shropshire and the Midlands in recent years and during his time in the Sixth Form he successfully completed his Gold DofE Expedition. A truly valuable asset to the school.

Conservatoire

Kizzy Lumley-Edwards

A*A

Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama - Vocal Studies

Kizzy was an outstanding musician, music scholar and talented singer. As a member of the National Youth Choir she took part in the Junior Conservatoire programme. She performed at Queen's College Oxford, St George's Chapel Windsor, St Peter's Basilica and the Pantheon in Rome, and at the amphitheatre in Pompeii. She was also our Captain of Music and throughout her time she has demonstrated diligence, organisation and excellent time management whilst also highlighting her ambition and commitment.
