Academic Success 2022

Ethan Beaver

A*A*A*B

Mathematics and Physics, University of Manchester

Ethan joined Ellesmere Sixth Form as an academic exhibitioner and rugby scholar. He involved himself fully in all aspects of College life. This was reflected in his appointment as a prefect for his second year. An outstanding mathematician and all round good chap.

Ben Zakers

A*A*A*

Biological Sciences (Biochemistry), The University of Edinburgh

Ben joined Ellesmere in Year 4 in 2011 and became a respected member of the College over those 10 years, captaining the Rugby 1st XV and also his boarding house. An excellent scientist and academic exhibitioner whose high point was not being eaten by a lion on the South Africa trip in July 2022.

Isaac Dodds

A*A*A*

Mathematics and Physics, University of Bath

Isaac joined Ellesmere Sixth Form as the recipient of a Swimming Award and he managed to balance a challenging training and competing programme which saw him swim for Great Britain and also gain coaching qualifications with his academic studies in which he excelled.

Aeneas Dennison

A*AAB

Anglo-Saxon, Norse, and Celtic, University of Cambridge

Aeneas joined us midway through the Lower Sixth and adapted very quickly to life at Ellesmere. He focused very much on his academic studies, teaching himself Old English and Old Norse. He was also the recipient of several external academic prizes for his essays and articles.

Abraham Pritchard

A*AAB

Mathematics, University of Manchester

Abraham joined Ellesmere in Year 9 and gradually developed both his academic and co-curricular skills with us. His interests in running, fund-raising and martial arts were only surpassed by his superb mathematical ability and all-round academic discipline.

Robyn Welti

AAA

Medicine, Queen's University Belfast

Robyn joined Ellesmere in 2015 as a Music Scholar and was also awarded an Academic Scholarship. During her time here she also became the recipient of an Army Scholarship in the Sixth Form. Her contributions to the life of the College were numerous and she was Head Girl in her final year.

Katie Gillingham

ABB

Business, University of York

Katie started Ellesmere Sixth Form with a strong academic background and with a particular interest in media, creative arts, sociology and psychology. She also took advantage of our co-curricular opportunities in the CCF Army section and achieved the Gold Duke of Edinburgh Award, as well as many sports teams.

Amy Storey-Gibbons

ABB

Psychology, University of Liverpool

Amy joined Ellesmere in Year 9 as a Music Exhibitioner and as such contributed fully to all the artistic opportunities afforded to her as a singer and also to the drama department as a performer. She was also awarded Arts Prefect in her final year. She worked hard to achieve her academic qualifications while balancing her other responsibilities - and all with a smile.

Caroline Westwood

ABB

Business, University of York

Caroline joined Ellesmere for her Sixth Form and immediately showed that she could balance her external business interests with her academic studies. She achieved the ILM level 3 Award and displayed a natural flair for all aspects of business.

International Baccalaureate (IB)

Michal Andryskowski

42 Points

Computing, Imperial College London

Michal joined the IB course at Ellesmere from Poland on an Academic Scholarship and immediately it became apparent that he had much to offer academically. He also gained much from his involvement in co-curricular activities allowing him to become a valued member of the College.

BTEC

(D - Distinction; M - Merit)

Charlie Ashbrook

D*D*D*

Golf gap year

Charlie joined Sixth Form in September 2020 and quickly established himself as a capable, independent, academically strong and talented individual. He has excelled on the BTEC Level 3 in Sports Coaching and Development course and combined a very successful golf career in the Golf Academy with the course. We wish Charlie all the very best in his golf career.

Jonjo Ashbrook

D*D*D*

Golf gap year

Jonjo also joined Sixth Form in 2020 and has excelled on the BTEC Sports Coaching and Development course during his time here - he has shown to have brilliant research, analytical and communication skills. Jonjo has also continued to play golf to a very high standard in the Golf Academy with national awards from competitions all over the country.
