The Ellesmere College International Foundation Programme (IFP), is a pre-university programme of study over 1 year delivered at Ellesmere College - a Recognised Teaching Centre for the University of London International Foundation Certificate. The programme provides a means of progression for students wishing to undertake studies at undergraduate level at the University of London or at a wide range of universities in the UK and around the world. An award from the University of London is a mark of excellence, respected by employers and universities worldwide.

About the IFP at Ellesmere College

Ellesmere College is a University of London Recognised Teaching Centre. Being granted Recognised Teaching Centre status by the University of London means that in the view of the University, we demonstrate a sustained commitment to developing excellence in respect of teaching, support to students and administrative processes. The course of study is delivered by subject matter experts within the College and on successful completion of the programme students will be awarded the International Foundation Certificate (which is equivalent to A Levels) by the University of London Certificate and official transcript.

The programme consists of four courses of study with an examination in each.

FP0001 Mathematics and Statistics

FP0002 Economics

FP0007 Pure Maths

FP0012 Chemistry

Application

To apply for entry onto the IFP at Ellesmere College, students must be aged 17 years or older and have completed their Gaokao or have IELTS 5.5 as a minimum (higher would be a distinct advantage).
