Dear Parent,

LAMDA and ESB Private Lessons

The CBI (Confederation of British Industry) considers the acquiring of good presentation, listening and questioning skills to be of prime importance to young people entering the work place. Ellesmere College has an enviable tradition in promoting the achievement of these skills

The school is fortunate to have two visiting specialist teachers: Mrs Lesley Lear and Ms Claire Thompson, who offer private Spoken English, Dance and Drama lessons. The tuition is designed to assist students to acquire effective public speaking skills and confidence in their ability to speak in public. The ability to speak clearly and effectively not only gives pupils a sense of achievement, but also reflects positively in all areas of their school life.

Pupils taking private lessons are entered for annual ESB (English Speaking Board) and LAMDA (The London Academy of Music & Dramatic Arts). The ESB Advanced Certificate taken in Year 12, gives students an opportunity to gain extra UCAS points.

Pupils will be assigned to one of the two specialist teachers:

- Mrs Lear will deliver lessons in LAMDA and ESB Spoken English, LAMDA Verse & Prose, ESB Senior Interview and Presentation Skills Course
- Ms Thompson will deliver lessons in LAMDA Acting, Mime, Devised Drama, Musical Theatre or Reading for Performance

If you would like your child to take part in these specialist lessons please complete and return the form by email to reception@ellesmere.com.

Yours sincerely,

Enc.
